Students' feedback is obtained majorly from senior students who have attended classes at least for two years. Due to lack of full time faculty in various departments, we have to appoint Guest Lecturers in various departments who are frequently changed because of casual nature of their job. We have collected feedback on fourteen point criteria, namely, 1) Punctuality in taking classes(Punctuality), 2) Ability to generate interest in subject(Interest), 3) Ability to relate subjects with real life(real life), 4) Efforts to teach and complete the curriculum(syllabus), 5) Ability to present different topics(Presentation), 6) Ability to simplify hard topics(Simplification), 7) Efforts to clarify doubts(Doubts clarification), 8) Extent of using ICT in teaching-learning(ICT use), 9) Availability of teachers beyond class hours(Beyond class), 10) Rate your teacher in terms of examination orientation(Exam orientation), 11) Extent of job oriented discussion in class(Job orientation), Students are asked to evaluate only those teachers whose classes, they have attended in different years. They have been asked to evaluate each and every teacher of their departments on five point scale. Feedback has been taken in qualitative form. It is converted numerically to analyze the feedback.

Studying the overall feedback, it can be concluded that in criteria like punctuality and generating interest among students about the subjects, our teachers are performing satisfactorily but regarding criteria like use of ICT, encouraging extra-curricular activity and teaching to help students in job oriented activities , our teachers are lagging behind. In respect of analyzing the feedback department-wise, we have decided to leave out the departments where number of respondents is less than ten. Among the departments, Sanskrit and Political Principal has seen the complete report and he has asked the teachers of various departments whose performance are not satisfactory, to improve their performance as far as practicable in future. He has also praised the teachers with extra-ordinary feedback to maintain their performance in the days to come.
